A corrupted chaplain with a mysterious past provides hideous insight into the nature of evil while stalking his juvenile prey. This includes an Evidence Workbook, which sets out examples of what type of information is useful to collect to prove the specific, contextual and linkage elements of sexual violence as a war crime, crime against humanity or act of genocide. I get a thrill from tinkering with the structure, of creating characters that I care about, and of manipulating a plot that unravels unpredictably, yet logically.
